

Spicy Grilled Lamb Burgers

A flavorful, colorful lamb burger served with tomato, cucumber, onion, and feta

Yield:

4 servings

Ingredients:

Burger ingredients:

1 pound ground lamb

1 tablespoon dried mint leaves (or 2T fresh chopped)

1 tablespoon dried cilantro (or 2T fresh chopped)

1 tablespoon dried oregano (or 2T fresh chopped)

3 cloves garlic, minced

2 teaspoons red wine

1 teaspoon red wine vinegar

1 teaspoon molasses

1 teaspoon freshly ground cumin

1/4 teaspoon ground allspice*

1/2 teaspoon crushed red pepper flakes

1/2 teaspoon salt

1/2 teaspoon ground black pepper

For serving:

4 pita bread rounds (or use hamburger buns)

Mayonnaise or dressing of your choice

Thinly sliced cucumber

Thinly sliced tomatoes

Thinly sliced onions

Lettuce, optional

4 ounces feta cheese, crumbled (optional)

Instructions:

1.

In a large bowl, combine the lamb with the seasonings and mix well.

Shape into 4 patties (or cover and refrigerate until needed, up to 24 hours).

2. Preheat grill on medium. Brush grill grate with oil. Grill burgers ~5 minutes on each side (our Weber Q grill takes 4 minutes on each side).

3. Heat the pita pockets or buns briefly on the grill (we spread a little butter on the buns first).

4. Serve burgers with the mayonnaise, cucumber slices, tomatoes, onions, and lettuce or feta (if desired) in the pita pockets or on the buns.

Additional Notes:

*I didn't have allspice, so I tossed in a sprinkling of black pepper, cinnamon, nutmeg, ginger and cloves.

This sounds like a lot of crushed red pepper, but the burgers really aren't what I would consider "hot", so feel free to add more if you want some heat! I like 1 teaspoon instead of 1/2 for a spicy burger. ☐

Creamy Spaghetti Squash Casserole

A cheesy, creamy layer of spaghetti squash topped with a flavorful spaghetti sauce with meat for a delicious baked casserole!

Yield:

16 servings

Ingredients:

2 medium-large spaghetti squashes (about 6 [packed] cups of cooked squash all together)

2 tablespoons butter

1 small-medium onion, chopped

2 cloves garlic, minced

1/2 green bell pepper, chopped

8 ounces cream cheese

8 ounces sour cream
1 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon black pepper
1 teaspoon dried parsley flakes
8 ounces (2 cups) shredded mozzarella cheese
2 ounces (1/4 cup) shredded cheddar cheese, optional
8-12 ounces (about 1 1/4 to 2 cups) cooked ground beef
4 cups spaghetti sauce (can use a 26 ounce jar or a quart of homemade)
1/2 tablespoon sugar
1 teaspoon Italian seasoning

Instructions:

1.
In a large stock pot, put about 2-3 inches of water. Cover and bring to a boil. Wash outside of squash, cut squash in half and place in the stock pot of boiling water, flesh side down. Cover and boil for 15-20 minutes, until squash is tender.
2. Drain squash. Holding halves with a potholder, use a fork to scoop out the stringy "spaghetti". Set aside.
3. In a large stock pot or saute pan, melt butter. Add onions, garlic, and bell peppers and saute until tender. Add squash and cook and stir until heated through.
4. In a separate saucepan on low heat, melt the cream cheese. Add the sour cream, salt, pepper, and parsley flakes, stirring to make a smooth white sauce.
5. Stir the white sauce into the cooked squash mixture.
6. Grease a 9×13-inch baking dish. Spread the white squash mixture

evenly over the bottom of the pan. Spread about 1 1/2 cups of the shredded mozzarella cheese over the squash.

7. In a large mixing bowl, combine the ground beef, spaghetti sauce, sugar, and Italian seasoning. Spread over the layer of shredded cheese.

Top with the remaining shredded mozzarella cheese and cheddar cheese (if using). Sprinkle with dried basil or oregano flakes for garnish if desired.

8. Bake uncovered at 350 degrees (325 for glass dish) for 30-40 minutes, until casserole is hot and bubbly. Remove from oven and allow to cool slightly (10-15 minutes) before serving.

1 large onion, chopped

6 celery ribs, chopped

2 cloves garlic, minced

2. When meat is browned, add part of the water (enough to cover the meat) and bring to a boil. Reduce the heat and simmer, uncovered, for an hour.
3. Add the remaining ingredients. Bring to a boil and then simmer for at least 1 hour. If soup becomes too thick, add additional water according to your preference.

Grilled Philly Cheese Steak Sandwiches

grilled cheese sandwich with a twist: between crisp buttery slices of rye bread, you'll find Swiss cheese, sauteed beef and onions, and some green pepper!

Yield:

4 large sandwiches

Ingredients:

3/4 pound thinly sliced roast beef*, torn into large chunks
(2-3" in diameter)

1 small-medium onion, thinly sliced

Salt and pepper

1 large green bell pepper, sliced into 8 rings
8 slices of provolone or Swiss cheese softened butter
8 slices rye bread

Instructions:

1. Butter one side of each slice of bread and set aside.
2. In a large skillet over medium heat, melt 1-2 tablespoons butter.
Add the onions and saute for a few minutes, until onions start to turn translucent.
3. Add the beef to the onions, sprinkle with a little salt and pepper, and saute until meat is hot. Remove onion and meat mixture from the skillet and set aside.
4. Add a tablespoon of butter to the skillet and saute the pepper slices, just until crisp-tender. Don't overcook!!
5. Assemble sandwiches by placing a slice of bread buttered-side-down. Place 1 green pepper ring on the bread. Place a slice of cheese on top of the pepper. Spoon about one fourth of the meat mixture onto the slice of cheese and top with another slice of cheese. Place a second pepper slice on top of the second slice of cheese, and place another slice of bread, butter-side-up, on top.

So, from top to bottom, you will have:

Bread
Pepper
cheese
Meat/Onions

cheese
Pepper
Bread

And the buttered sides of the bread will be on the outside of the sandwich, like for a grilled cheese sandwich. Because... that is what we are going to do next: grill it!

6. Heat a griddle or skillet over medium heat. Carefully place sandwiches on the hot griddle. After a couple minutes, flip sandwiches and toast the other side to a nice crispy brown. The cheese should be melted. Yum!

7. These sandwiches are best enjoyed hot off the griddle, but if for some reason you need to hold them for a few minutes until they can be devoured, we find it works great to place them on a wire cooling rack to prevent condensation from forming on the crispy buttery grilled side!

Additional Notes:

*You can use deli roast beef, or slice your own from leftover roast beef.

Joshua created this recipe, combining a couple of his favorite things: Grilled cheese and MEAT! ☐ A big fan of Philly Cheese Steak sandwiches, these grilled ones are an easy way to enjoy the same flavors.

I have a rye bread recipe here. The bread in the photos of this sandwich, however, is from a store, not homemade.

Grilled New York Steakburgers

Juicy tenderized New York strip steak with horseradish sauce served on a grilled bun with lettuce, cheese, red onion, and tomato

Yield:

4 servings

Ingredients:

2 large New York strip steaks*

liquid smoke flavoring

salt

pepper

granulated garlic

oil, preferably in a spray bottle

For the sauce:

2 tablespoons mayonnaise

1 tablespoon prepared horseradish

Toppings:

4 large thin slices of red onion

4 large thin slices of tomato

4 thin slices of cheese (Swiss, Provolone, cheddar, or American)

4 large lettuce leaves, washed

4 large hamburger buns

Softened butter, for spreading

Instructions:

1. Trim fat and gristle from steaks and cut each steak in half, to form burger-sized pieces. Using a meat tenderizer (we have this meat tenderizer and it works great!), tenderize each steak several times (at least 4-5 times, and up to 10-12 times [with 16-blade tenderizer]).

2. Season steaks on both sides with liquid smoke (we put our liquid smoke in a spray bottle for convenience), salt, pepper, garlic, and oil. Preheat grill on HIGH for 10-15 minutes.

3. To prepare the sauce, mix the horseradish and mayonnaise in a small bowl and set aside. Get the buns ready to grill by very lightly buttering the open sides.

4. Grill buns for a couple minutes, buttered side down, until lightly toasted. Remove and set aside.

5. Grill steaks on MEDIUM for 8-9 minutes, flipping once halfway through grilling time, until desired doneness is reached. We like ours a little pink in the middle still, but even fully cooked steakburgers will be super tender and juicy.

6. Assemble sandwiches using the horseradish sauce, onion, cheese, lettuce, and tomato. Enjoy hot!

Additional Notes:

*I am sure other cuts of steak would work in this recipe as well. Obviously, the better your cut of meat, the better this steakburger will taste!

Or use garlic powder or garlic salt (omit salt called for in ingredients list if using garlic salt).

The FDA advises that tenderized meats should be fully cooked unless irradiated meat is used, in which case some pink in the middle is considered safe.

We tenderize our meat right before grilling, using a very clean tenderizer and cutting board, and feel safe consuming it with pink in the middle. If in doubt, fully cook and check with a meat thermometer! ☐

Matza Pizza

A homemade thin-crust unleavened pizza topped with your favorite pizza toppings! (Topping suggestions included!)

Yield:

8 individual-size pizzas

Ingredients:

1/4 cup oil

1/4 cup honey

2 teaspoons salt

3 eggs

1 1/2 cups water

6 to 6 1/2 cups bread flour or all-purpose flour

Your favorite pizza toppings: See additional notes for suggestions!

Instructions:

1.

In a large mixing bowl*, combine the oil, honey, salt, eggs, and water.

Stir until well-mixed. Stir in about 4 cups of the flour, then add more flour as needed and knead into a fairly stiff dough.

2. Preheat oven to 375 degrees. Divide dough into 8 pieces. On a lightly-floured surface, roll each piece into a very thin circle, about 8 inches in diameter – but really as thin as you can get it.

Place

rolled dough onto lightly-greased baking sheets.

3. Bake pizza crusts for about 6 minutes, just until very lightly browned and not doughy.

4. Remove from oven and spread with your favorite pizza toppings.

Place pizzas back into the oven to bake until cheese is melty and browned, about 10 minutes. Serve hot!

Additional Notes:

If you have a bread machine, you can use the dough cycle for this step.

Just place ingredients in machine in order listed and allow it to knead until a smooth dough has formed. Remove dough from machine (before “rising time” has started) and proceed with step 2.

A Kitchen Aid mixer with a dough hook can also be used for step 1 in this recipe.

Another rolling option: Roll dough on a silicone baking mat.

This

eliminates the lightly-floured surface part and greasing the baking sheet, as the mat is non-stick.

Pizza Topping Suggestions:

For Matza Pizza, I think the toppings are the most important part!

So, I suggest loading up the pizza with some more flavorful options than just sauce and cheese. ☐

Pictured: Fresh spinach leaves, pineapple, black olives, mozzarella cheese, and red sauce.

Mediterranean Herb: grilled chicken, sun dried tomatoes, fresh spinach leaves, parmesan cheese, mozzarella cheese, and an Italian dressing for the sauce.

Chicken Garlic: grilled chicken, sliced green onions, chopped fresh tomatoes, mozzarella cheese, and Ranch dressing + minced garlic for the sauce.

Taco Pizza: seasoned taco meat, red sauce, mozzarella cheese, and cheddar cheese. Serve with shredded lettuce and sour cream.

Chicken Bacon Artichoke: grilled chicken, turkey bacon, mozzarella cheese, parmesan cheese, chopped artichoke hearts, and Italian dressing for the sauce.

3/4-1 c sugar*

6-7 c water*

1/8-1/4 c sugar

2. Using a potato masher, mash lemon slices with sugar, squeezing out juice.
3. Add water (to taste) and additional sugar if needed. Strain out seeds and rinds.
4. Combine strawberries with 1/8 c sugar and mash. Add more sugar if needed.
5. To serve, pour lemonade into a glass and add several tablespoons of the strawberry mixture.

Additional Notes:

*Taste your lemonade as you make it, to get the right amount of sugar and water, since lemon size and taste buds vary ☐

Lemon rinds may be eaten, and are actually quite tasty when sliced very thinly and eaten fresh. Don't leave the rinds in your lemonade for longer than 30 minutes or so, because they will make it bitter.
