Pepperjack Pizza

A homemade pizza crust topped with sauce, spicy taco meat, mozzarella, and pepperjack cheeses

Yield:

12 slices

Ingredients:

Crust Ingredients:

1 cup warm water (110-112 degrees F)

1 teaspoon salt

1 tablespoon sugar

1 tablespoon oil

3 cups all-purpose flour

1 tablespoon dry yeast

Meat topping:

1/2 pound (8 ounces) ground beef (about 1 1/4 cups after being cooked)

1/2 onion, chopped

1 clove garlic, minced (optional)

1 teaspoon water

1 tablespoon freshly ground cumin

1 tablespoon chili powder

1/4 teaspoon black pepper

1/2 teaspoon salt

1 teaspoon paprika

Other toppings:

1 cup pizza sauce

crushed red pepper, optional

8 ounces (2 cups) shredded mozzarella cheese

8 ounces (2 cups) shredded pepperjack cheese

1/4 to 1/2 green bell pepper, chopped

thinly sliced onions, optional

Instructions:

1. Make crust by combining the first 4 crust ingredients in a bowl and stirring. Add flour and yeast all at once and stir until thick. Knead into a smooth dough, adding additional flour only if necessary. Knead for about 6-8 minutes, until smooth and elastic. Place dough in a bowl, cover, and let rise in a warm place for about 45 minutes. If you're in a hurry, skip this rising time and go on to step 3.

If using a bread machine to knead the dough: Place crust ingredients into bread machine in order listed. Set to the dough setting. When dough is finished, move on to step 3.

2. While dough is rising, brown meat with onions and garlic. Drain excess grease. Return to heat and add the water and additional seasonings. Cook and stir for about 5 minutes, until meat is well-coated and no water remains in the pan.

3. Press or roll dough to fit on a greased 16-inch round pizza pan (or a combination of smaller pans to suit your taste). This crust recipe will produce a medium-thickness crust for a 16-inch round pizza pan.

4. Top crust with pizza sauce. Sprinkle red pepper flakes if using. Sprinkle prepared meat evenly over pizza sauce, then top with the cheeses, dispersed evenly over the top. Add green pepper and onion, if using.

5. Pre-heat oven to 450 degrees. Place pizza in the middle (or slightly lower than the middle, but not at the top) of the oven and bake for about 12 minutes, until top is golden. You may need to experiment a little with the type of pan you're using and your oven. I currently use a thin non-stick pizza pan with holes in the bottom, and my pizza bakes for 12 minutes exactly, every time. If the top of your pizza is too browned, but the crust doesn't appear fully cooked, turn off the oven, crack the oven door, and allow pizza to set for a few minutes. Cut into 12 slices and serve!

4 cups diced tomatoes (or two 14.5-ounce cans)

2 cups beef broth or water

2 teaspoons brown sugar

2 cans (15.5 ounces each) of beans, such as kidney beans, black beans, or cannellini beans (I use two different kinds)

Tammy's Mom's Meatloaf

A moist and flavorful meatloaf, perfect for slicing and eating hot or using for cold sandwiches!

Yield:

10-12 slices

Ingredients:

1 1/2 pounds 80-85% lean ground beef

1/2 cup finely chopped onion

1/2 cup quick-cooking oats OR 1 slice of bread, torn into small pieces plus 1/4 cup quick-cooking oats

1 large or extra-large egg

1/4 teaspoon salt

1/8 teaspoon black pepper

1 tablespoon catsup

1 tablespoon milk

2 tablespoons catsup

water

Instructions:

1. Place the first 8 ingredients in a large bowl and mix well with your hands.
2. Form meat into one 9-inch long loaf, packing it together well with your hands to avoid air pockets Place in a shallow baking dish (9×13-inch dish works well).
3. Spread 2 tablespoons of catsup over the top of the loaf. Pour water in the dish around the meatloaf, about 1/4 to 1/2-inch deep.
4. Place dish on a rack in the middle of the oven, and then turn on the oven. Set the temperature at 325 degrees F if the dish is glass, and 350 degrees F if it is a metal dish.

5. Bake for 2 hours uncovered. The outside of the loaf will be dark brown.

6. After baking, remove from the dish to a platter. The meatloaf will be easier to slice if you let it cool slightly before slicing. A sharp, thin knife works best for slicing, as a thick knife tends to break up the meat. Slice loaf into 10-12 slices and serve with catsup or barbeque sauce on top.

Grilled Turkey BLT

My recipe for a pork-free grilled version of the classic Bacon, Lettuce, and Tomato sandwich!

Yield:

1 sandwich

Ingredients:

3 slices turkey bacon

2 large fresh tomato slices

1 leaf of green lettuce (your favorite kind will work!)

1 thin slice of cheddar cheese, optional

2 tablespoons mayonnaise

a small amount of butter

2 slices multi-grain bread (OR your favorite sandwich bun/roll)

Instructions:

1. Preheat gas grill or prepare charcoal grill. Grill turkey bacon on low for about 4 minutes. Flip and grill 4 more minutes.

2. Spread a very thin layer of butter on the bread you are using. Grill bread on low for a minute or two on each side (only do one side – the inside – if using a roll/bun rather than sliced bread).

Instead of using an outdoor grill, you can do this inside on the stovetop using a griddle, stovetop grill, or frying pan.

3. Spread mayonnaise on bread and assemble sandwich with the turkey bacon, lettuce, and tomato (and cheese if using). Enjoy hot! (I like to serve these BLTs with a tasty salad.)

Grilled Copper River Salmon

Easy grilled Copper River Salmon, tender, flaky, and full of flavor!

Yield:

4 servings

Ingredients:

16-24 ounces Copper River Salmon fillets

1 teaspoon liquid smoke flavoring

Fresh, coarsely-ground black pepper

1 teaspoon minced garlic, or about 2 cloves

olive oil

Salt

Instructions:

1. Rinse salmon and pat it dry. With skin-side-down, lightly sprinkle liquid smoke over the salmon. Sprinkle freshly-ground black pepper over the salmon, along with the minced garlic.

2. Drizzle with olive oil to coat, and sprinkle generously with salt.

3. Pre-heat grill on HIGH for 10-15 minutes. Place salmon, flesh-side-down, on grill and grill with lid down on MEDIUM heat for about 8 minutes (for thin fillets; a few minutes longer for thicker fillets).

Flip salmon after 4 minutes of grilling time has passed. Salmon is done when it flakes apart easily with a fork and is hot in the middle. Don't over-cook, or it can be dry.

Serve hot with some cooked rice and grilled veggies or a salad!
