Almond Chestnut Biscotti

An aromatic semi-sweet biscotti with almond, vanilla, and chestnut flavors, baked to a light dry texture

Yield:

2-3 dozen slices

Ingredients:

- 1 + 1/2 cups fresh drinking water
- 2 tablespoons (dry) chestnut flavored black tea
- 1 1/2 cups sugar
- 3/4 cup oil
- 4 eggs
- 1 1/2 tablespoons double-strength vanilla extract
- 1 1/2 tablespoons almond extract
- 5 to 5 1/2 cups all-purpose flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 tablespoon baking powder
- 1 cup coarsely chopped almonds

Instructions:

1. Bring water to a near-boil. Pour one cup of the hot water into a heat-safe measuring container (I use a glass measuring cup) and allow to stand for several minutes until measuring container is hot. Discard the cup of hot water.
2. Measure 2 tablespoons of (dry) chestnut tea leaves into the pre-heated measuring cup. Add the remaining 1/2 cup of freshly heated water. Allow tea to brew for 3 minutes; strain*. The result should be approximately 1/4 cup of strong tea.
3. In a large mixing bowl, beat sugar, oil, and tea. Add eggs and extracts and stir gently until completely mixed.
4. Add 4 cups of the flour, the salt, baking powder, and the almonds. Mix into a thick batter, adding the rest of the flour as needed. Batter should be very thick but still able to be stirred.
5. Grease two 10 x 15-inch jelly roll pans or cookie sheets. Spread half of the batter on each sheet: begin by using your mixing spoon to spread the batter in a 3 or 4-inch wide strip the length of the cookie sheet. Continue adding batter, on the strip, making a mound of batter about 2 inches high and 4 or 5 inches wide, running the length of the sheet (about 14 inches).
6. Bake at 350 degrees for 30-40 minutes, until top seems dry and edges are browned. Rotate sheets half way through baking.
7. After baked, remove from oven and reduce temperature to 325 degrees. Allow loaves to cool on the sheets for about 10 minutes. Remove loaves, one at a time, to a cutting board. Using a serrated knife, gently slice loaves into 3/4-inch slices. Place slices, cut side down, back onto the sheets.
8. Return sheets to the oven and bake for an additional 20-30 minutes or until dry, turning pieces once midway through baking. Biscotti should be lightly browned and rather dry. Remove from sheets to wire racks and allow to completely cool for a crunchy, dry biscotti.

Quick and Easy Breadsticks

Quick and simple buttery bread sticks – garlic or cinnamon recipe variations included!

Yield:

8 servings

Ingredients:

1/4 cup (1/2 stick) butter or margarine

1 tablespoon oil

3 cups flour (I use part whole wheat, part unbleached)

1 teaspoon salt

1 tablespoon baking powder

3/4-1 cup milk

*See additional notes for ingredients and instructions to make garlic breadsticks or cinnamon breadsticks from this recipe!

2. Stir dry ingredients together, and gradually add milk, stirring until dough forms and leaves sides of bowl. I don't bother to actually measure out the milk – just add it gradually until there's enough.
3. Knead 5-6 times in bowl; place on floured countertop and roll out into 9×13-inch rectangle.
4. Lay dough in pre-heated 9×13-inch pan, atop the melted butter/oil. Cut into 1/2" strips. Bake at 425 degrees for 20 minutes.

Cream Cheese Butterhorns

A flaky crescent pastry with a cinnamon and cream cheese filling and icing glaze

Yield:

36 small pastries

Ingredients:

2 cups sifted flour

1/4 teaspoon salt

2/3 cup cold butter

1 egg, lightly beaten
3/4 cup sour cream or plain yogurt
8 ounces cream cheese
1/2 cup powdered (confectioner's) sugar
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon

Icing Ingredients:

1 cup powdered sugar
1 tablespoon hot water
1/2 teaspoon vanilla

Instructions:

1. In mixing bowl, combine flour and salt. Cut in butter, until pea-sized lumps remain. Stir in egg and sour cream or yogurt just until mixed. Dough may still have some small butter lumps in it. Wrap dough in plastic wrap and chill.
2. With an electric mixer on high, beat cream cheese, powdered sugar, and cinnamon until well-combined.
3. Divide dough into three parts. On a lightly floured surface, roll each part into a 12 to 16-inch circle. Cut circle into 12 wedges. (I use a pizza cutter for this.)
4. Put a small amount (about a teaspoon or so) of cream cheese mixture at the wide edge of each wedge. Then roll each wedge, starting at the wide edge and ending at the point.
5. Place butterhorns point-side down on a lightly greased baking sheet. Bake at 375 degrees for 20-25 minutes, until lightly browned and fully cooked.
6. While butterhorns are baking, mix icing ingredients in a small bowl, until smooth. When butterhorns are finished baking, remove to a cooling rack and use a fork to drizzle icing over hot pastries.
