

Spicy Grilled Lamb Burgers

A flavorful, colorful lamb burger served with tomato, cucumber, onion, and feta

Yield:

4 servings

Ingredients:

Burger ingredients:

1 pound ground lamb

1 tablespoon dried mint leaves (or 2T fresh chopped)

1 tablespoon dried cilantro (or 2T fresh chopped)

1 tablespoon dried oregano (or 2T fresh chopped)

3 cloves garlic, minced

2 teaspoons red wine

1 teaspoon red wine vinegar

1 teaspoon molasses

1 teaspoon freshly ground cumin

1/4 teaspoon ground allspice*

1/2 teaspoon crushed red pepper flakes

1/2 teaspoon salt

1/2 teaspoon ground black pepper

For serving:

4 pita bread rounds (or use hamburger buns)

Mayonnaise or dressing of your choice

Thinly sliced cucumber

Thinly sliced tomatoes

Thinly sliced onions

Lettuce, optional

4 ounces feta cheese, crumbled (optional)

Instructions:

1.

In a large bowl, combine the lamb with the seasonings and mix well.

Shape into 4 patties (or cover and refrigerate until needed, up to 24 hours).

2. Preheat grill on medium. Brush grill grate with oil. Grill burgers ~5 minutes on each side (our Weber Q grill takes 4 minutes on each side).

3. Heat the pita pockets or buns briefly on the grill (we spread a little butter on the buns first).

4. Serve burgers with the mayonnaise, cucumber slices, tomatoes, onions, and lettuce or feta (if desired) in the pita pockets or on the buns.

Additional Notes:

*I didn't have allspice, so I tossed in a sprinkling of black pepper, cinnamon, nutmeg, ginger and cloves.

This sounds like a lot of crushed red pepper, but the burgers really aren't what I would consider "hot", so feel free to add more if you want some heat! I like 1 teaspoon instead of 1/2 for a spicy burger. ☐

Grilled Philly Cheese Steak Sandwiches

grilled cheese sandwich with a twist: between crisp buttery slices of rye bread, you'll find Swiss cheese, sauteed beef and onions, and some green pepper!

Yield:

4 large sandwiches

Ingredients:

3/4 pound thinly sliced roast beef*, torn into large chunks
(2-3" in diameter)

1 small-medium onion, thinly sliced

Salt and pepper

1 large green bell pepper, sliced into 8 rings
8 slices of provolone or Swiss cheese softened butter
8 slices rye bread

Instructions:

1. Butter one side of each slice of bread and set aside.
2. In a large skillet over medium heat, melt 1-2 tablespoons butter.
Add the onions and saute for a few minutes, until onions start to turn translucent.
3. Add the beef to the onions, sprinkle with a little salt and pepper, and saute until meat is hot. Remove onion and meat mixture from the skillet and set aside.
4. Add a tablespoon of butter to the skillet and saute the pepper slices, just until crisp-tender. Don't overcook!!
5. Assemble sandwiches by placing a slice of bread buttered-side-down. Place 1 green pepper ring on the bread. Place a slice of cheese on top of the pepper. Spoon about one fourth of the meat mixture onto the slice of cheese and top with another slice of cheese. Place a second pepper slice on top of the second slice of cheese, and place another slice of bread, butter-side-up, on top.

So, from top to bottom, you will have:

Bread
Pepper
cheese
Meat/Onions

cheese
Pepper
Bread

And the buttered sides of the bread will be on the outside of the sandwich, like for a grilled cheese sandwich. Because... that is what we are going to do next: grill it!

6. Heat a griddle or skillet over medium heat. Carefully place sandwiches on the hot griddle. After a couple minutes, flip sandwiches and toast the other side to a nice crispy brown. The cheese should be melted. Yum!

7. These sandwiches are best enjoyed hot off the griddle, but if for some reason you need to hold them for a few minutes until they can be devoured, we find it works great to place them on a wire cooling rack to prevent condensation from forming on the crispy buttery grilled side!

Additional Notes:

*You can use deli roast beef, or slice your own from leftover roast beef.

Joshua created this recipe, combining a couple of his favorite things: Grilled cheese and MEAT! ☐ A big fan of Philly Cheese Steak sandwiches, these grilled ones are an easy way to enjoy the same flavors.

I have a rye bread recipe here. The bread in the photos of this sandwich, however, is from a store, not homemade.

Grilled New York Steakburgers

Juicy tenderized New York strip steak with horseradish sauce served on a grilled bun with lettuce, cheese, red onion, and tomato

Yield:

4 servings

Ingredients:

2 large New York strip steaks*

liquid smoke flavoring

salt

pepper

granulated garlic

oil, preferably in a spray bottle

For the sauce:

2 tablespoons mayonnaise

1 tablespoon prepared horseradish

Toppings:

4 large thin slices of red onion

4 large thin slices of tomato

4 thin slices of cheese (Swiss, Provolone, cheddar, or American)

4 large lettuce leaves, washed

4 large hamburger buns

Softened butter, for spreading

Instructions:

1. Trim fat and gristle from steaks and cut each steak in half, to form burger-sized pieces. Using a meat tenderizer (we have this meat tenderizer and it works great!), tenderize each steak several times (at least 4-5 times, and up to 10-12 times [with 16-blade tenderizer]).

2. Season steaks on both sides with liquid smoke (we put our liquid smoke in a spray bottle for convenience), salt, pepper, garlic, and oil. Preheat grill on HIGH for 10-15 minutes.

3. To prepare the sauce, mix the horseradish and mayonnaise in a small bowl and set aside. Get the buns ready to grill by very lightly buttering the open sides.

4. Grill buns for a couple minutes, buttered side down, until lightly toasted. Remove and set aside.

5. Grill steaks on MEDIUM for 8-9 minutes, flipping once halfway through grilling time, until desired doneness is reached. We like ours a little pink in the middle still, but even fully cooked steakburgers will be super tender and juicy.

6. Assemble sandwiches using the horseradish sauce, onion, cheese, lettuce, and tomato. Enjoy hot!

Additional Notes:

*I am sure other cuts of steak would work in this recipe as well. Obviously, the better your cut of meat, the better this steakburger will taste!

Or use garlic powder or garlic salt (omit salt called for in ingredients list if using garlic salt).

The FDA advises that tenderized meats should be fully cooked unless irradiated meat is used, in which case some pink in the middle is considered safe.

We tenderize our meat right before grilling, using a very clean tenderizer and cutting board, and feel safe consuming it with pink in the middle. If in doubt, fully cook and check with a meat thermometer! ☐

Soft Butter Spread

A fluffy butter mixture that's easily spreadable

Yield:

2 cups

Ingredients:

1 cup (2 sticks) butter, at room temperature

1/2 cup canola oil

1/2 cup water, at room temperature

Instructions:

1. Using an electric mixer, blend butter on HI until fluffy.
2. Continue mixing, and slowly add oil. Continue mixing and slowly add water. Mixture will turn white and be very light and fluffy!

3. Chill until set. (See additional notes.)

Additional Notes:

*This

mixture may be stored in the refrigerator or at room temperature. At room temperature, it is very soft and fluffy. From the fridge, it is still spreadable, and softens or melts quickly.

This spread is great for toast, bagels, bread, pancakes, or grilled cheese sandwiches. In fact, I thought the grilled cheese sandwiches were extra crispy when I used this spread instead of plain butter!

We have tried adding salt to this recipe, which makes it taste even better (I love salt) but can make the water separate after being stored in the fridge a while.

Homemade Beef Salami

A medium-textured spicy homemade lunch meat

Yield:

5 pounds of salami

Ingredients:

2 cups water

1 tablespoon liquid smoke flavor

2 teaspoons garlic powder

2 teaspoons mustard seed

1 teaspoon coarsely ground pepper

2 teaspoons onion powder

2 teaspoons crushed red pepper

5 pounds freshly ground beef (80% lean or leaner)

Instructions:

1. Combine water, liquid smoke, spices, and Tender Quick. Add beef and knead with hands, mixing well.

2. Divide meat into 3 rolls. Wrap each roll separately in heavy-duty foil. Meat will be soft and moist, so be sure to use heavy-duty foil.

Wrap foil tightly closed down center and seal ends.

Refrigerate for 24 hours.

3. Using a fork, make holes through the foil on the bottom of each roll, about one inch apart.

4. Place rolls on the rack of a broiler pan with the hole pierced part on the underneath. Place hot water in the shallow pan of the broiler, underneath the rack.

5. Bake in center of oven at 325 degrees for 2 hours. Remove foil and set rolls on rack to drain and cool. Slice as desired. Cover and store in refrigerator for up to ten days, or freeze.

Grilled Turkey BLT

My recipe for a pork-free grilled version of the classic Bacon, Lettuce, and Tomato sandwich!

Yield:

1 sandwich

Ingredients:

3 slices turkey bacon

2 large fresh tomato slices

1 leaf of green lettuce (your favorite kind will work!)

1 thin slice of cheddar cheese, optional

2 tablespoons mayonnaise

a small amount of butter

2 slices multi-grain bread (OR your favorite sandwich bun/roll)

Instructions:

1. Preheat gas grill or prepare charcoal grill. Grill turkey bacon on low for about 4 minutes. Flip and grill 4 more minutes.

2. Spread a very thin layer of butter on the bread you are using.

Grill bread on low for a minute or two on each side (only do one side – the inside – if using a roll/bun rather than sliced bread).

Instead of using an outdoor grill, you can do this inside on the stovetop using a griddle, stovetop grill, or frying pan.

3. Spread mayonnaise on bread and assemble sandwich with the turkey bacon, lettuce, and tomato (and cheese if using). Enjoy hot! (I like to serve these BLTs with a tasty salad.)
